

Write a 1,000- to 1,200-word essay about the impact of regulation and policy.

Choose a current health policy from your state that is being considered as a legislative act.

1. Explain the pros and cons of the proposed health policy from the perspective of the patient, family, or community and its role in reducing the cost for health care insurers.
2. Explain the government's impact on the cost of health care.
3. Explain what regulatory authority will implement or enforce this health care policy.
4. Describe the differences between federal, state, and local health care regulatory responsibilities in the chosen health policy.

Include three scholarly sources including your textbook.
